Haines Home Building Supply agrees to keep all credit and personal information contained in the application confidential. Its use will be limited to checking references listed herein and in providing credit information to others with whom the applicant has listed/authorized us as a reference.

Thank you for your interest in obtaining credit with Haines Home Building Supply.

In order to better serve you and our other customers, the following guidelines and regulations are required.

Upon successful credit approval, an account will be set up and a credit limit will be established. A printed invoice is provided at the time of purchase and it will be emailed to the address provided on your application. We email and/or print monthly statements on the 26th of each month.

If your account balance is over the credit limit, a message appears on the cashier's computer. Please monitor your own account and keep your account paid promptly to avoid exceeding your limit. . If you need any further assistance in monitoring your account balance, please inquire on our website at www.haineshomebuilding.com.

Pay particular attention to the past due section of the monthly statement. All amounts are due and owing on the 10th of the month following the purchase. Past due amounts will incur interest. Should amounts on your account remain past due for 90 days, you will not be allowed credit privileges until it is brought current. Any balance over 90 day past due may result in a more permanent revoking of your credit privileges.

Accounts over 180 days will proceed to collections. Collections may include but are not limited to, small claims or other court action and/or attaching your permanent fund dividend. By submitting this credit application you agree to pay collection costs, court costs and attorney's fees should your account proceed to collections.

Please contact us immediately should you experience payment difficulties.

I have read, understand and agree to the above.
